

FIXED PROPERTY & CITY PLANNING TAX

All individuals or legal entities that own land plots or houses in the city as of January 1st of each year must pay the fixed property tax. For assets located in urban zones (those with many residential and commercial facilities), you will also need to pay the city planning tax.

[ABOUT THE TAX PAYMENT PROXY]

Individuals or legal entities that are obligated to pay municipal taxes but do not have a valid residential or business address in Kobe city should appoint a tax payment proxy, who will carry out tax-related procedures on their behalf. This person will receive your tax notices and then pay your taxes instead of you. If you would like to appoint or change a tax payment proxy, please fill out the following form and mail it to the address provided below.

HOW TO PAY FIXED PROPERTY & CITY PLANNING TAXES

1. DOMESTIC BANK TRANSFER

If you set up a bank transfer, your taxes will be automatically withdrawn from your bank account in Japan.

2. CASHLESS PAYMENTS

You can always pay these taxes on your computer, smartphone or tablet device using one of the following options:

- ⊕ Payment apps: LINE Pay bill payment, PayPay bill payment, PayB, Rakuten Bank Convenience Store Payment Service
- ⊕ Credit cards
- ⊕ Internet banking

3. USING YOUR TAX INVOICE

A tax invoice will be mailed to you along with your tax notice.

This tax invoice can be used at:

- ⊕ Banks, post offices and convenience stores
- ⊕ Shin-Nagata Government Office etc.

PLEASE NOTE THAT:

- If you choose to pay using a credit card or internet banking, you will be charged a transaction fee on top of your taxes.
- If there is no barcode on your invoice, you cannot pay at convenience stores or use the payment apps.
- If you require a receipt, please pay at a bank, post office or convenience store.
- Your invoices will feature two separate deadlines, a “pay-by” (納期限) date and a “valid-by” (取扱期限) date. Only banks and post offices will be able to accept your invoices after the valid-by date. If you would like us to issue a new invoice for you, please contact us at the following E-mail:
