

FREE LEGAL ADVICE ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES

If you are being discriminated against at your school or place of work because of your sexual orientation, race, ethnicity or nationality, or if you feel you are a victim of hate speech on social media, you can receive free legal advice from one of our attorneys (in principle, limited to one session per person).

APPOINTMENTS

- ⊕ You need to make an appointment ahead of time to receive a consultation.
- ⊕ In order to make an appointment, please fill out the request form on the back of this leaflet and send it to the Human Rights Promotion Division of the Kobe City Government either by email (jinken@city.kobe.lg.jp) or fax (078-322-6048).
- ⊕ Once your application has been processed, you will be notified about your appointment date. Please note, however, that it may take us some time to respond to applications filled out in languages other than Japanese.
- ⊕ Please also note that depending on the nature of your inquiry, you may be referred to a different department or service desk.
